

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Whitney Stewart Weeks of Chesterfield, Missouri, who was recently named Miss Missouri for 2004; and

Whereas, in her role as Miss Missouri, Whitney Weeks will serve as an ambassador for the State of Missouri and will promote military awareness through all she does; and

Whereas, Whitney Weeks published a book of veterans stories entitled They Made A Difference in 2004, and has written more than 600 letters of appreciation to overseas veterans for the past five years; and

Whereas, a 1998 graduate of Marquette High School, Whitney Weeks continued her education at Purdue University where she was active in the Pi Beta Phi Sorority and the Dance Team, was chosen as one of Pi Kappa Alpha's twelve outstanding Women of Purdue, was selected for the 2001-2002 Purdue Homecoming Court, and earned her Bachelor's degree in 2003; and

Whereas, Whitney Weeks looks forward to representing the Show-Me State later this year at the Miss America Pageant; and

Whereas, Whitney Weeks has achieved all of this and more with the support and encouragement of her proud parents, Richard and Carole Weeks; her sister and brother-in-law, Jennine and Berry Brown; her niece, Alexa Brown; and her grandparents, Luther and Shirley Weeks and Clark and Katherine Johnson:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Whitney Weeks at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Miss Missouri Whitney Stewart Weeks, as a mark of our esteem for her.
